DONATION VISIT .- The friends of Rev. G. B. ENGLE, propose to show their regard for the respected Rector of St Pauls Church by tendering him a Donation Visit at the Baneroft House to-morrow (Friday) evening. A general invitation ON STILTS.

The Bay City Press of last week concludes an article headed "The Irrepressible Conflict,"-we don't appreciate the particular significance of the head-in the following airy "style:"

"Facts are facts, and are stubborn things. Upon these we rely and base our opinions. And we say to our respected cotemporarys: if you wish to gainsay our positions deal in the article of facts, and not in twattle, otherwise we shall be so presumptuous as not to consider you formen worthy of our steel.

Bay City is not located at the mouth of Saginaw River, but some five miles up; East Saginaw is still further up; there is as good depth of water in the COFFEE, ... TEA, ... BUCKETS, ... BASKETS river between East Saginaw and Bay City as there is between Bay City and Saginaw Bay; therefore, if the water should ever recede, which is not in the slightest degree probable, "over goes CRACKERS, MOLASSES, SYRUP your shed," at the same time our shanty tambles to the ground. As far as navigation is concerned, if either "dries up," we both do, simultaneously. The position of our cotemporary is like that of the man who wanted to have his well filled up, for fear his neighbors might use some of the water. Extremely liberal, fair, candid, "disinterested," accommodating, generous, patronizing, and "a' that," but not very judicious.

In regard to the "heavy weight," intimations of the Press concerning "formen worthy of his steel," &c., we have only to remark that if the editor don't like our style, we shall be strongly tempted to sell out to somebody several feet taller, and of a more "grave and selemn mein," who will be able to met him "on the level."

THEATRE.-The American Theatre of the City of East Saginaw, opens for the first time as a Dramatic Institution, this evening with the play of "Damon and Pythias or the Test of Friendship," and the farce entitled "The Rough Dimond." From what we know of the "professional" portion of the company, we are of the opinion that the performance will be satisfactory. The arangement of seats, the 6 houses engaged exclusively in the scenery, stage arrangements, lights, &c., perchase and shipment of lumber and are all very respectable. The bar which was formerly in the building has been removed, and no liquor is sold on the premises.
